About this guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) contains important information about the financial services available to you. Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd holds an AFSL, under which your Adviser operates as an authorised representative. This FSG outlines the services that both your Adviser and Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd offer you, and aims to assist you in deciding whether to use the services available to you. It contains information including:

- the financial services available
- how your Adviser and Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd are paid
- any potential conflicts of interest, and
- dispute resolution procedures if you have a complaint.

When you receive personal financial advice your Adviser will provide you with a Statement of Advice (SOA). This contains details of the advice provided, the basis on which it was given and information about fees, commissions and associations which may reasonably be expected to be capable of influencing the provision of the advice. However, your Adviser has an overriding obligation to act in your best interests.

If your Adviser provides you additional advice, and that further advice is related to what was included in your previous SOA (and is not provided to you in writing), you may request a copy of the record of that further advice at any time up to seven years from the date your Adviser gave that further advice to you. You can request the Record of Advice by contacting your Adviser or Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd

In some circumstances your Adviser will provide general financial product advice. In these situations your Adviser will provide a warning that the advice does not take into account your personal objectives, financial situation or needs and, in these circumstances, you will not be provided with an SOA.

When you receive personal or general advice to acquire a particular financial product, your Adviser will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). This contains information about a particular product and will assist you in making an informed decision about that product.

If you ask to purchase a specific product you will be provided with the appropriate PDS.

This FSG has been authorised for use by Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd.

Fees and commissions

There are various ways payment is received and distributed by your Adviser and their associates for the services provided. You may be charged a set fee, an hourly rate or your Adviser and their associates may receive commissions directly from the financial product issuer whose products are recommended to you.

Part 2 of this FSG, the Adviser Profile, contains further information detailing fees and commissions as well as other benefits your Adviser and their associates may receive for the services they provide.

Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd or its Advisers may be entitled to receive partnership payments from product issuers. This may be by way of additional commission (including amounts additional to the rates of commission disclosed in Part 2 of this FSG), a rebate of some or all of the fees that your Adviser pays to Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd or other payments and may depend on the volume of business Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd and its Advisers collectively or individually place with a product issuer.

Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd does not have these types of arrangements in place with any product issuers on its approved product list (APL). A copy of Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd APL is available on request from your Adviser or Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd

Your SOA outlines the specific amount of any initial and ongoing commissions, fees, charges and other benefits that are paid to any person as a result of the financial products or services you obtain. It will also explain how the commissions, fees, charges and other benefits are calculated.

If your Adviser only provides general advice, you can request further details about how remuneration is calculated, provided you do so within a reasonable time after receiving this FSG and before you receive a financial service.

If your Adviser recommends a financial product, the issuer of that product will receive a benefit which may be in the form of a premium, entry fee or management fee. This is fully explained in the relevant PDS.

If you enter into an ongoing fee arrangement with your Adviser you will be sent a Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) annually. The FDS notes the services you were entitled to receive, the services you actually received and the fees you paid for those services in the previous 12 months.

An ongoing fee arrangement is an arrangement under which you are charged an ongoing fee during a period of more than 12 months for personal advice (but does not include commissions paid to Advisers). Where you enter into an ongoing fee arrangement after 1st July 2013 your adviser is required to send a renewal notice to you every two years. Your ongoing fee arrangement will only be able to continue if you respond to this notice.

If personal advice is provided, when you are happy with the recommendations and information in your SOA, you need to authorise your Adviser to implement the recommendations by signing it.

Referrals

If you are referred to your Adviser or Clarity Success Freedom Pty Ltd by someone else, and they are paid a fee or commission for that referral, your SOA will show the amount of that fee or commission, or you can request this information from your Adviser.
